Romford BID To Hold its First Food Market and Dog Show

Romford BID is excited to announce that it will be holding its first Food Festival and Dog Show over the May Bank Holiday weekend.

The Romford Food Festival will take place on Sunday 26th May, between 10am – 6pm and Monday 27th May between 10am – 3pm. Visitors to the event will be able to enjoy a host of culinary delights and entertainment that will be hosted in Marketplace and along South Street, with additional activity planned for The Liberty and The Brewery shopping centres.

The two-day foodie extravaganza will include a variety of Street Food Stalls, a Gourmet Food Market and Farmer's Market. There will also be informative talks, tastings and interactive workshops for visitors wanting to improve their culinary skills to attend. Plus, there will be live music to enjoy throughout the weekend and lots and lots of free family entertainment to get involved with. For those that already possess a knack for baking, there will be the chance to show off your skills at the make and bake competition which will be hosted over the weekend.

Romford BID will also be holding its first ever dog show on the Sunday 26th May. Romford BID wants to find the dog with the waggiest tale, best fancy dress, best trick and more. Registration will take place between 10am to 12noon in the Marketplace, and then the show will start from 12noon to 4pm. Dog owners can register their dog at any point to join the competition and the entrance fee per category will only be £1.50. All money raised on the day will be go to support Scruffys Angels, a local charity who rescue and rehome lost and found animals.

The entire weekend will be free to attend and there is no need to pre-book. More details will be announced over the coming weeks so follow Romford BID's social media channels or visit their website for up-to-date information.

Julie Frost, Romford BID Director said, "We've pulled out all the stops to put on an exceptional, varied Food Market that should appeal to all tastes and interests. There's going to be so much to enjoy all weekend from talks, tutorials, competitions, live music and of course lots of delicious food – I just can't wait! I'm also super excited about our dog show as I know our community contains some real dog lovers that are looking to show off how amazing their dogs are – plus I hope to see dogs dressed in their very best outfits, ready to win some awards!"
